Aefled And Eleanor Valerie Morgan

England under Norman rule is the backdrop for this compelling tale. The rivalry and subsequent integration of two very different cultures as they learn to live alongside each other is vividly presented by the author. Aefled is separated from her family and friends and is forced to live with Robert de Bernay as his mistress. Knowing that one mistake could spell disaster for her family and the rest of the villagers, she has to tread very carefully and let her head rule her heart. While accepting her fate with stoicism, she never stops fighting for her dream.
