What is human existence like when experienced through the Cosmic Consciousness of an astral traveler? To observe Earth from the outside is to discover an entirely new world. Inspired by a vision, Liquid Mind is written from the perspective of an astral traveler who exists in another reality and decides to have a human experience. This mixture of allegorical fiction and philosophical analysis is a parable for the Planetary Human. Before coming to Earth, the voyager has access to all Universal knowledge. At birth, perspective shifts, and humanity's confusion is revealed. The visitor has never experienced fear, but must in order to understand human emotions. Why has humanity created fears-as the UniVerse is One Verse and fear is unnecessary? Why do humans feel separate from the Creator? Human fears are the inherited thoughts of primordial awareness. If this is recognized, concepts can be redefined to understand why the ancient visions that became humanity's great religions are incompatible with present reality. Liquid Mind helps readers remember Life beyond Earth-in multidimensional realities. Humans understand Consciousness through localized realities, and this book raises questions and presents possibilities that can enable a person to be fearless when dealing with human issues.
