El diario del hachís: La corrupción es parte del ser humano (Spanish Edition) Roberto Gómez Portilla
Te presentamos una crítica a la corrupción inherente en el ser humano. Un periodista que baja a los infiernos de la adicción, de la corrupción de nuestra sociedad, de la mediocridad del sistema político en los gobiernos municipales, de sus trapicheos. Una visión trepidante de investigación periodística, y la real censura habitual que se practica por los más poderosos.

Sinopsis

Tomás Pamiférrez es un periodista trotarredacciones que ha sido despedido de su último trabajo en Madrid, en el que apenas ha durado unos meses, por lo que acepta una oferta en Septonia (urbe ficticia), tercera ciudad autónoma española en el norte de África. En Septonia se ve involucrado en extravagantes aventuras con una variopinta galería de personajes, la mayoría de ellos renegados surreales en búsqueda de una vida mejor en África. El protagonista, mientras lleva a cabo una bajada a los infiernos fumando su peso en hachís, presencia y se ve inmerso en la lánguida amargura de una urbe afligida por la connivencia generalizada con la corrupción y la cínica responsabilidad de los informadores locales.
