As more people seek meaning in new spiritual practice or renew their commitments to traditional religions, they are creating homes that reflect and enhance the spiritual aspects of their lives. This volume presents Buddhist meditation rooms alongside personal shrines to Catholic saints, altars to Santeria deities, lavishly decorated Sabbath tables, private temples to creativity, memorials to friends and family members, and offerings to Hindu Gods. Laura Cerwinske's text and Matthew Fuller's photographs explain the content of the home sanctuary and describe specific interpretations and applications of spiritual style.
