Many students struggle with assurance of salvation. Despite God's desire that they be fully assured of their place with Him, students still struggle to know that they belong to Jesus and He belongs to them. This six-session study based on the book by author and pastor J.D. Greear will help students find assurance that can seem so elusive. They will understand that salvation isn't about just saying a prayer, walking an aisle, or holding up their hand. They will understand that salvation rests solely on their response of repentance and faith toward the finished work of Christ.
