El espejo roto (Spanish Edition) Beatriz García-Huidobro Moroder

En pasajes breves se van entrelazando la vida y recuerdos de tres mujeres relacionadas por un pasado común que solo se manifiesta al final. Son las voces de mujeres y sus vínculos poderosos y determinantes con los otros. Filiaciones por ausencia, por rencor y miedo, por omisión. Sus particulares historias fragmentadas, de a poco reveladas, descubren los secretos duros, las penas enquistadas, la soledad más radical. Cada una de ellas, a su manera y en su entorno, sobrelleva su existencia en una suerte de cautiverio impuesto y autoimpuesto que las obliga a arrastrar sus frustraciones y derrotas, sus amores inexistentes o perdidos, sus recuerdos, los engaños, el abuso impune en el mayor de los silencios. La escritura de García-Huidobro es capaz de matizar el tono frío e impersonal de informes periciales y códigos legales con unas historias crueles y de enorme desolación en las que, a pesar de todo, surgen sentimientos de ternura hacia los niños que estos personajes fueron y que ahora, como adultos, resultan desencajados y melancólicos.
