Mineshaft Nights Leo Cardini

Now reissued by STARbooks Press in a handsome new edition with an additional short story dealing with raw sexual acts not included in the original.

It was called the Mineshaft. It was the most famous sex club in the world. Hidden among the warehouses of Greenwich Village's meatpacking district, it became a symbol of the sexual revolution that exploded during the freewheeling seventies.

For nearly a decade, men in denim and leather came from all over the world to visit this theatre of sexual excess, where their most secret sexual fantasies could be brought to life in the sex-on-premises scenes that were played out night after night within its gritty, grimy walls.

Mineshafts is told through the eyes and ears of the doorman Cam and recounts the men who fell under his spell. This collection of explicit stories will take you into the depths of the Mineshaft and into the psyches of the men who inhabited acting their sexual dreams.

For Adults Only!
