Más que una página del periodismo, la obra literaria y periodística de Leoncio Rodríguez González constituye una fuente singular de información para la historia reciente de Canarias. En lo político, fue uno de los artífices del discurso regional y de la institución de los cabildos insulares. En lo periodístico, es señalado como impulsor de la transición del periodismo canario a la era informativa moderna. En su labor literaria, y vinculada a las facetas anteriores, se presenta como elemento esencial de la configuración isleña en una comunidad de interpretación, en relación al proceso de construcción de la identidad colectiva. En definitiva, el presente estudio ubica al ser humano en dialéctica con el tiempo histórico, mediante un ejercicio de sinceridad y rigor historiográfico, en beneficio de la memoria de una de las personalidades significativas de la historia del Archipiélago.
