Life in Switzerland is good - very good - for British expat couple Max and Fiona. Yet they are both dissatisfied with their perfect existence, each in their own way. Fiona's uneventful life is turned upside down one day when work colleague Isabella tells her about a mysterious meeting she's had with a man by the lake in the central Swiss city of Zug, where they both work. Is there a connection to the cruel prisoner who recently escaped from a local prison? Things are not what they seem in Tyburn Way's first foray into central Switzerland. It's a beautiful but harsh world, where only the toughest survive.
