Jealous Hearted...An Obsession for Love Dominique Thomas

For Darby life had been nothing but pure hell. For most of her life, people treated her horrible. She was not loved by her parents or sibling. She felt even worse when she attended school and was subjected to the torment of by the other students. There was one girl in particular that was nice to her, however, Lourdes. Lourdes was everything that Darby aspired to be. She was beautiful and she was popular. She was the head cheerleader that was dating the star of the football team. Lourdes befriended Darby and they quickly became inseparable through high school. They soon graduated and Lourdes left for college and lost contact with Darby. While Lourdes worked at her dreams, Darby began intense treatment to become a new woman. She'd gotten a full body makeover, but only her outside didn't reflect her insides. She still felt like the girl that was never good enough. Lourdes is back in town with her man Qwote, and they happen to move next door to Darby. Darby becomes fixated with Lourdes and everything about her. She takes her obsession so far that she starts to wonder if she could actually be Lourdes. While Lourdes is dealing with her own issues like wanting to be a wife and a mother, Darby is planning her demise. Take a look into book one of this series and see if Darby will find it in her heart to leave Lourdes alone, or if she will succumb to her jealousy and take Lourdes' life away from her, so that she can in fact live it herself.
