The Lost Italian Renaissance: Humanists, Historians, and Latin's Legacy Dr. Christopher S. Celenza

"Christopher Celenza has written a smart, sensitive, and stimulating book on the intellectual history of the Italian Renaissance. He writes with balanced objectivity on the problem of Renaissance Studies to convey an engagement and urgency that is concise and captivating. His very well-written, clearly organized book is not only a pleasure to read, but demands a rethinking of the field." -- John A. Marino, University of California, San Diego
